STATINTL

Dear Newell:

Walter Wolf talked with me yesterday about your letter to him in regard to Jim. I saw Jim when he was down here and made sure that everybody who might be interested in him saw him. I did not want to become involved in the question of employing him personally, because of my affection and friendship for him.

Unfortunately, there just did not seem to be a spot where he could be fitted in, at least for the present, and I would think that his hearing handicap would make that true permanently. I was awfully sorry to see the matter turn out as it did, but there is nothing further that I could do, except force the issue which would be a mistake from every standpoint.

I was awfully sorry to miss you when you were in town before. Come again soon and when I am in town.

As ever,

F. TRUBEE DAVISON
